

Malbec

*Originally known for its use in Bordeaux blends,
Malbec is now making a name for itself in the New World.
It is fast becoming one of the more sought after wines.*

Domaine Jean Bousquet Mendoza, Argentina 2006

This wine is sourced from estate vineyards then aged for 8 months in French oak. It has an intense nose full of blackberry, black currant, with spicy pepper notes. Medium-bodied, on the palate with additional notes of fig, chocolate and mineral emerge. Subtle mouth feel with excellent structure and length.

85% Malbec, 5% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Merlot, 5% Shiraz

Fantelli Magno Mendoza, Argentina 2007

The nose of this wine is filled with dark fruit aromas: blackberry, black cherry and plum, rounded out by touches of sweet mocha and earth. This is an elegantly styled wine with impeccable balance between the sweet berry and tart cherry fruit. Light tannins and notes of chocolate and coffee mark the finish.

Four Vines, "Monarchy" Paso Robles 2007

"This wine is a mouthful... Rich currant, blackberry fruit, subtle cherry, with dried herbs on the nose. In the mouth, succulent red fruits, fig, black currants with a hint of provincial herbs and earthy spice. A taste sensation that lasts long on the palette with fabulous structure integrated seamlessly with the resonating velvet fruit. This wine has it all... power and grace!"
